

California Small Business COVID-19 Relief Grant Program

State Funding for Small Businesses

The first round of applications for the Small Business COVID-19 Relief Grant Program is now open. On November 30th Governor Newsom and the State Legislature announced the allocation of $500 million available to small businesses and nonprofits that have been impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic.

The California Small Business COVID-19 Relief Grant Program provides grants ranging from $5,000 to $25,000. Lendistry has been designated by the State to act as the intermediary for the Program to disburse the grant funds. "Small business owners and our nonprofits serve as the economic heart of every California community," said Governor Newsom. "This grant program isn't the end, it's the beginning. It's a bridge to help the millions of Californians, whose dreams and livelihoods are now on the line, as we work with the State Legislature to create additional support."

Grants will not be issued on a first-come, first-served basis and will be awarded after the close of each application round. New dates and deadlines: Start a new application NOW – closes January 13, 2021 at 11:59 PM PST. Details for the second round will be announced shortly. It's worth a try! Time Smart: How to Reclaim Your Time & Live a Happier Life

by Ashley Whillans

One. That's all you need. One more hour magically crammed into your day and you'd be set: no more moving today's tasks over to stress you out tomorrow – and if there was an extra hour wedged into tomorrow, great, that'd help, too. You don't want much, just one lousy hour. But as you'll ask yourself after reading "Time Smart" by Ashley Whillans, will it make you happy? Here's the spoiler: no, it probably won't. So how do you claw back your time and still make money? The initial secret, says Whillans, is to remember that while there's always a way to gain profit, time eventually runs out. In a study made some years ago, about seventy percent of Americans said they "never" had enough time in a day. Truth is, they had just as much time as you have now, which is the same as your ancestors had: twenty-four hours. Today, much of that is snatched up inside six "Time Traps," says Whillans: technology, a focus on money, an undervalue of time, workaholism, an aversion to being idle, and a human quirk in planning. These things can be overcome, first by knowing your own time-money mindset and where you lie on a spectrum. Next, document what you do with your time; you may be surprised to see that you have more free time than you think, and you can recapture some of it, rework it, and jettison most of what doesn't make you happy. On that note, do the math: it may be more profitable, monetarily and personally, to pay someone to do the chores you hate. Lastly, make these habits lifelong by asking yourself daily why you're doing them. Schedule a quick playtime if you know a stressor is imminent. Then take these new practices to your co-workers or employees: studies show that time-affluent workers are better to themselves, each other, and the world at large. As time management books go – and there are a lot of them – "Time Smart" is pretty good: in easy-to-understand, linear, sense-making points, author Ashley Whillans lays a path toward taking back time, while still making money. While most people are roughly medial in time-money preferences, Whillans doesn't ignore you for your industriousness or your slacking. For the former, she admits that her methods may be hard, but she offers help through tiny, cumulative movements that will seize every minutes' worth of fun, and by advocating a goof-off schedule to get you started. More playful readers are nudged into the same, but in a way that doesn't minimize the requirement for work. Whillans also offers a method of translating happiness into a language of money; as well as worksheets you can modify; and bullet points, if you're rushed. Is it a coincidence that this book is so skinny? Maybe; maybe not, but even that helps readers on their journey to attain this new lifestyle: there's not much to read but a lot to learn and if you need a time-management book this new year, "Time Smart" is the one. ■

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF CHRISTOPHER DAVID OW, Decedent

Case Number: 20PR00508

TO ALL HEIRS, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of CHRISTOPHER DAVID OW.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by AMBER OW, in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that AMBER OW, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent..

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

Date: MARCH 24, 2021 Time: 8:30 a.m. Dept. 4

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

ANY INFORMATION OBTAINED WILL BE USED FOR THAT PURPOSE. "NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postpone-ments be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 844-477-7869, or visit this internet Web site www.stoxposting.com, using the file number assigned to this case T.S.# 85042. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale." For sales conducted after January 1, 2021: NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (844) 477-7869, or visit this internet website www.STOXPOSTING.com, using the file number assigned to this case 85042 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.
