WOMEN GIRLS+ CLIMATE JUSTICE

Climate of Hope Forum - March 3, 2021

Climate of Hope Forum a Santa Cruz Works Event

On March 3, 2021, Regeneración will hold its annual Climate of Hope Forum featuring how women are leading the way for just climate solutions. Throughout the two-hour event, there will be various voices that will represent female experiences. There will also be a networking hour that will provide an opportunity for the audience to interact, converse, raise additional topics, and bring forth other perspectives.

In 2016, Regeneración was founded to combat climate change with local impacts and engage on a local level to build resilient communities. During recent times, the organization has turned their gaze over to females who can power through the repercussions of white male domination. Regeneración Director Nancy Faulstich believes in a future where individuals of every race and gender will unite under one of the greatest movements throughout human history, the social justice issue of climate change. It has been made clear that women in roles of leadership - especially Indigenous women, women of color, and low income women - are necessary to ensure a sustainable future.

Common goals include protecting our home, putting an end to all oppression, and creating societies filled with harmony. She highlights that women and men have far more in common, despite the only significant difference being their biological roles in reproduction. # The FBI Way: Inside the Bureau's Code of Excellence

by Frank Figliuzzi

Someone's got your back.

That's all you need to know. Someone will stand behind you, hold your wallet, watch your drink, and keep a look-out for you. Safe as in your mother's arms, that's where you are then, but in

"The FBI Way" by Frank Figliuzzi, that didn't come easy.

Most people don't know it (or don't think about it), but steps are taken every moment around the clock to ensure that the United States can function under any circumstances, including attack or insurrection. It was in a bunker during one of those protections that this book was conceived, says Frank Figliuzzi, the FBI's former head of counterintelligence. Safeguards and planning are just two elements in "an extraordinary practice of excellence... instilled in agents from the moment they entered the academy."

It's part of what he calls The FBI Way, which consists of "Seven C's."

First is the Code, or "the FBI's Code of Conduct." It lays out every corner, thread, action, and standard that's expected of the FBI's agents at all times. It's one of the first things a new agent is faced with, separating the talented from the almost-weres. Conservancy is likewise an early lesson, representing an accountability to the group as a whole, and extending through the entire organization. Clarity leaves no question as to what is expected and enforced – which is hand-in-hand with Consequences because "Consequences put the teeth in a code." Compassion is necessary to keep a good agent from suffering in a bad situation. Extending it never undermines Credibility, which Figliuzzi says "is the cornerstone of any values-based endeavor" and which allows for transparency in how the organization works.

If credibility is absent, he says, "the mission fails."

And finally, Consistency helps stay

the course and hammer home

the organization's tenets. Consistency is the guardrail. It makes things easier in the long run. It makes "doing the right thing instinctive muscle memory."

Readers who are crime-drama fans may be scratching their heads now. A book about the FBI that's not a thriller?

Nope, "The FBI Way" is thrilling, but it's more of a procedural with incidental crime-solving. It's more of an inner peek at the workings of the Bureau and less whodunit; more about the agency itself rather than about the bad guys. Author Frank Figliuzzi makes it abundantly clear that the FBI may be the subject of TV, movies, and novels but becoming an agent and staying there takes physical ability, mental prowess, and only the most sterling of character.

But thriller fans, don't go away: Figliuzzi shares stories that will satisfy you, too: tales of bravery and sacrifice, deep looks at the FBI's work in the 9/11 aftermath, tales of accidents and purposeful acts that affected careers; murder, spying, and other reasons for you to sleep better at night, knowing the FBI is around.

Perhaps not surprisingly, "The FBI Way" is also a good book for the business reader. If you want to bring distinction to your workplace but with a Bureau flair, this book got your back.

* * *

FBI fans, there's more: check out "The Killer's Shadow" by John Douglas and Mark Olshaker. It's the true story of the Bureau's search for a serial killer, and what could be the origin of the issues we face today, with domestic terrorism, hate crimes, and white supremacy. ■

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF DANIEL EDWARD BOYLE, Decedent

Case Number: 21PR00068

TO ALL HEIRS, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of DANIEL EDWARD BOYLE.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by CARRLEY ROSE HUSFELT-BOYLE, in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that CARRLEY ROSE HUSFELT-BOYLE, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

Date: APRIL 14, 2021, 2020 Time: 8:30 a.m. Dept. 4

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
