Roar Into the Second Half of Your Life (Before It's Too Late)

by Michael Clinton

You thought you'd be back by now.

When you left your job last year, they said they'd call you when things opened up but here we are, 18 months in, and you're still sitting at home. It's finally occurred to you that you're not going back, and you have mixed feelings. Is this a blessing in disguise or, as in

"Roar" by Michael Clinton, is it an opportunity to sink your teeth into?

For most of your life,

you've held down a job, twenty years, thirty years?

Forty years, and the pandemic showed you that it's time to shuffle things, or perhaps retire. That's a word Michael Clinton hates, by the way.

"Rewire" is a much better word, he says, or "refire."

Both sound more empowering, don't they? Empowering, but also filled with opportunity. Now's your chance to step back and ROAR. Says Clinton:

"REIMAGINE yourself

OWN who you are

ACT on what's next

REASSESS your relationships to get you there"

First, remember what you wanted to "be" when you were ten, and reconnect with that feeling. Dream of the future a couple years hence, and start saving money, making moves, or taking action to get there;

it won't happen magically.

Journal your thoughts and ideas, including the kind of legacy you hope to leave.

Never be ashamed of where you come from or how you got to where you are. Recall the best and worst relationships you've had, own your strengths as well as your weaknesses, and be honest! Don't even lie when people ask your

age. Remember that your financial security is in your hands; schedule a "SWOT" analysis

regularly, to be sure you're not off-track.

"Act courageous" and have no regrets. Try new things. Make life changes now; do what

Clinton calls "life layering."

And finally, put it all together: stop speaking of yourself disparagingly.

Gather the people you want to support you,

and ensure that they do. Build a life that's

"parallel" to work, so you can seamlessly

ease from the latter and into the former.

To be sure, "Roar" isn't a bad book. Pointers are clearly stated inside but most don't need a lot of explanation: they're common things, commonsensical and sprinkled inside

illustrative anecdotes that are actually quite entertaining. You might find some nuggets to use, a couple of tidbits that'll help you on your "second half" of life but let's be honest: chances are that if you're over fifty-five, you've already thought about (and even tried!) much of what you'll read here.

So is entertainment what you want? Probably not entirely, and the frequent name-dropping in the stories sometimes mars

the relevance of what's presented. Wealth and fame, alas, aren't the most realistic touchstones anymore. Still, if you're really, truly rudderless at this time in your life and you need help finding direction and wind for your sails, author and media advisor Michael

Clinton's advice may offer some help. If you're good in that department, though, and you see "Roar"

on the shelf, just put it back. ■

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF EMILY LEE PARRISH, Decedent

Case Number: 21PR00359

TO ALL HEIRS, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of EMILY LEE PARRISH.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by DOROTHY G. THOMPSON, in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that DOROTHY G. THOMPSON, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, in any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

Date: OCTOBER 13, 2021 Time: 8:30 AM Dept. 10
The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

In re the Interest of: E.J.R.

JONATHAN E. ROULEAU,
3652 South Kansas Avenue, #2
Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53235, Petitioner, and

ELIZABETH GARZA,
Case Code No. 40803
483 Winchester Drive, Watsonville, California 95076,

Respondent. THE STATE OF WISCONSIN, TO THE PERSON NAMED ABOVE AS RE-SPONDENT:

You are hereby notified that the petitioner named above has filed a lawsuit or other legal action against you. The petition, which is attached, states the nature and basis of the legal action.

You must respond with a written demand for a copy of the Petition within 40 days from the day after the first date of publication. The demand must be sent or delivered to the court at:

Clerk of Circuit Court
Milwaukee County Courthouse
901 North 9 Street
Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53233 and to Lisa A. Martin of Karp & Iancu, S.C., petitioner's attorney, whose address is: 933 North Mayfair Road Suite 300, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53226

You may have an attorney help or represent you.

If you do not demand a copy of the Petition within 40 days, the court may grant judgment against you for the award of money or other legal action requested in the Petition, and you may lose your right to object to anything that is or may be incorrect in the Petition. A judgment may be enforced as provided by law. A judgment awarding money may become a lien against any real estate you own now or in the future and may also be enforced by garnishment or seizure of property. You are further hereby notified that if the parties to this action have minor children, violation of the following criminal statute is punishable by a fine not to exceed $10,000 or imprisonment not to exceed two years, or both: Sec. 948.31, Wis. Stats.:
Interference with custody by parent or others.

(1)(a) In this subsection, "legal custodian of a child" means:

1. A parent or other person having legal custody of the child under an order or judgment in an action for divorce, legal separation, annulment, custody, paternity, guardianship or habeas corpus.

2. The department of health and social services or any person, county department under s. 46.215, 46.22 or 46.23 or licensed child welfare agency, if custody of the child has been transferred under ch. 48 or 938 to that department, person or agency.

(b) Except as provided under chs. 48 and 938, whoever intentionally causes a child to leave, takes a child away or withholds a child for more than 12 hours beyond the court-approved period of physical placement or visitation period from a legal custodian with intent to deprive the custodian of his or her custody rights without the consent of the custodian is guilty of a Class C felony. This paragraph is not applicable if the court has entered an order authorizing the person to so take or withhold the child. The fact that joint legal custody has been awarded to both parents by a court does not preclude a court from finding that one parent committed a violation of this paragraph.

(2) Whoever causes a child to leave, takes a child away or withholds a child for more than 12 hours from the child's parents, or the child's mother in the case of a nonmarital child where parents do not subsequently intermarry under s. 767.803, without the consent of the parents or the mother, is guilty of a Class E felony. This subsection is not applicable if custody has been granted by court order to the person taking or withholding the child.

(3) Any parent, or person acting pursuant to directions from the parent, who does any of the following is guilty of a Class C felony:

(a) Intentionally conceals a child from the child's other parent.

(b) After being served with process in an action affecting the family but prior to the issuance of a temporary or final order determining custody rights to a child, takes the child or causes the child to leave with intent to deprive the other parent of physical custody as defined in s. 822.02(9).

(c) After issuance of a temporary or final order specifying joint custody rights and periods of physical placement, takes a child from or causes a child to leave the other parent in violation of the custody order or withholds a child for more than 12 hours beyond the court-approved period of physical placement or visitation period.

(4)(a) It is an affirmative defense to prosecution for violation of this section if the action:

1. Is taken by a parent or by a person authorized by a parent to protect his or her child in a situation in which the parent or authorized person reasonably believes that there is a threat of physical harm or sexual assault to the child;
2. Is taken by a parent fleeing in a situation in which the parent reasonably believes that there is a threat of physical harm or sexual assault to himself or herself;
3. Is consented to by the other parent or by any other person or agency having legal custody of the child; or
4. Is otherwise authorized by law.

(b) A defendant who raises an affirmative defense has the burden of proving the defense by a preponderance of the evidence.

(5) The venue of an action under this section is prescribed in s. 971.19(8).

(6) In addition other penalties provided for violation of this section, a court may order a violator to pay restitution, regardless of whether the violator is placed on probation under s. 973.09, to provide reimbursement for any reasonable expenses incurred by any person or any governmental entity in locating and returning the child. Any such amounts paid by the violator shall be paid to the person or governmental entity which incurred the expense on a prorated basis. Upon the application of any interested party, the court shall hold an evidentiary hearing to determine the amount of reasonable expenses.

If you and the petitioner have minor children, a document setting forth the percentage standard for child support established by the Department of Health and Social Services under sec. 46.25(9)(a), Stats., and listing the factors that a court may consider for modification of that standard under sec. 767.511(1m), Stats., is available upon your request from the clerk of circuit court.

You are notified of the availability of information from the Circuit Court Commissioner as set forth in §767.105, Wis. Stats.

§767.105 Information from Circuit Court Commissioner

(2) Upon the request of a party to an action affecting the family, including a revision of judgment or order under sec. 767.59 or 767.451:

(a) The Circuit Court Commissioner shall, with or without charge, provide the party with written information on the following, as appropriate to the action commenced:

1. The procedure for obtaining a judgment or order in the action.
2. The major issues usually addressed in such an action.
3. Community resources and family court counseling services available to assist the parties.
4. The procedure for setting, modifying and enforcing child support awards, or

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.
