The Long Game: How to Be a Long-Term Thinker in a Short Term World

by Dorie Clark

Well, this isn't working. You set goals for yourself before the pandemic hit, and none of them have happened. By now, you thought you'd be well on your way to a better career, maybe have a few Bucket List things crossed-off, but nooooo. Maybe it's time to pack it all in and stop this craziness. Or maybe you need to read "The Long Game" by Dorie Clark.

In her time as a speaker and business educator, Dorie Clark has had many opportunities to talk with conference attendees and she's noticed something surprising: most of them have mentioned that they were so busy, they wished they "had time to think." They were frustrated, and feeling like they weren't "keeping up."

If you've felt something similar, Clark says that you probably require "white space." You need time to ponder, wander, plan, and dream. More importantly, white space gives you room to stop looking at goals for this week or this month and start thinking about five or ten or thirty years from now. Says Clark, "... we can attain almost anything we want – but not instantly."

Being busy has become a sort of competion, and we have to back away from it. Learn to say "no" if something doesn't fit your long-term plans, even if the offer is so delicious that it hurts to turn it down.

It's okay to "be bad" at something; in fact, it's good if you do. Being terrible at something gives you room to legitimately be stellar at something else that you can own.

Learn to set goals that are right for you. Know what you like and what you don't, think about your hobbies and the things you do well, and then work to put these things together.

Tap into your curiosity and follow it. Give yourself a chance to explore. Stop feeling "dirty" about networking. And finally, perhaps most importantly, just be patient. Rome wasn't built in a day and neither is your best life; you can hardly wait to get where you're going, but sometimes you must.

In the meantime, deep breath and read "The Long Game" but know this first: there's a lot inside this book that you may not need, at least not now. Author Dorie

Clark includes many personal anecdotes in here, perhaps too many. There's information to read that you've probably learned from other sources, and its reiterations are reiterated.

Still, it's all about the nuggets and there are plenty of them. Readers who are in need of that final step-off-the-treadmill nudge will find it here, in a hundred small non-confrontational ways that add up. Once you're done with this book, you'll be able to spot small thinking-spaces throughout your day, guilt-free, pleasurably, and in a way that feels right.

This is a read-then-read-again kind of book that's perfect for anyone who needs to learn to look past the edge of their desk. Read it but remember: patience. "The Long Game" is helpful, but it'll take awhile before you know it's working. ■

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by ROSEANN KALICH, in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that ROSEANN KALICH, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

Date: JANUARY 12, 2022 Time: 8:30 AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. The undersigned or its predecessor caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (800) 280-2832 or visit this Internet Web site WWW.AUCTION.COM, using the file number assigned to this case 084572-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1, 2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (855) 313-3319, or visit this internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 084572-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.
