Think Like a Horse: Lessons in Life, Leadership, and Empathy from an Unconventional Cowboy

by Grant Golliher

The guy on the opposing side is many times your weight and more than twice your girth. He's not happy, either. He's snorting and huffing and pacing, eyes wild, and he might lash out at any minute.

Thing is, you have to work with this guy, so there's gotta be a way to get him on your side. With the new book, "Think Like a Horse" by Grant Golliher, why not learn how to make him your partner?

When Wyoming rancher and horseman Grant Golliher brings corporate clients to his historic Diamond Cross Ranch for team-building experiences, execs are often amazed that he can take a horse from terrified to saddle-worthy in a surprisingly short time. During that process, as they stand aside to watch, Golliher teaches corporate teams that getting cooperation from an equine is a lot like getting it from a human. People and horses need many of the same things to succeed, he says: "... trust, patience, firmness, kindness, and respect" are essential, no matter how many legs your "friends" stand on. And "if you don't believe in a horse – or a person, for that matter – you shouldn't be working with him in the first place."

Golliher says the best way to deal with human and horse is by "trying to put yourself inside the experience of another." Know what they dislike, what motivates them, and what makes them comfortable enough to trust. If you're surprised by their actions, you weren't paying enough attention.

"Be as soft as you can," says Golliher, "but be as firm as necessary."

Don't tolerate attitude, but discipline with love. Give credit to someone who's trying, and praise the "smallest change." Don't ask questions if you don't really want the answer. Learn what T-R-U-S-T stands for, then work to get it and keep it. Never be afraid to "move your feet." Set clear boundaries and expectations, "Make the right thing easy and the wrong thing difficult," Golliher says, and then let them have "the freedom to choose." The first time you run through "Think Like a Horse," you may believe that the book is little more than the reminiscences of a cowpoke. That should spur you to run through it again, because there's a lot more to this book than just horse-flesh.

It is true that author Grant Golliher writes primarily about horses here and that, in itself, is very entertaining, in the way that an old-time western or a weekend ride can make you smile. There's an easy feel to that and it somewhat cloaks the advice, leaving behind lessons that you may not initially realize you've learned. Then again, it's not all happy trails: readers who are looking specifically for help getting the most out of life with co-workers, employees, kids, neighbors, or students will quickly see that they're in the right arena.

And so, if your relationships are anything less than stable, read "Think Like a Horse" and then trot out what you've gleaned. Learn from its methods and let its stories rope you in. ■

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF JOHN HISAO TAO, aka JOHN H. TAO and JOHN TAO, Decedent

Case Number: 22PR00277

TO ALL HEIRS, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of JOHN HISAO TAO, aka JOHN H. TAO and JOHN TAO.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by NITA TAO, in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that NITO TAO, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

Date: JULY 13, 2022 Time: 8:30 AM Dept. 10
The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-899410-CL. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 916-939-0772, or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-899410-CL to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the sale is set aside for any reason, including if the Trustee is unable to convey title, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid to the Trustee. This shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney. If you have previously been discharged through bankruptcy, you may have been released of personal liability for this loan in which case this letter is intended to exercise the note holders right's against the real property only.
