Skirts: Fashioning Modern Femininity in the Twentieth Century

by Kimberly Chrisman-Campbell

A lady always sits with her knees together, ankles discreetly crossed.

A hundred years ago, that's the advice great-great-grandma might have whispered. A lady always moves quietly and demurely but purposefully, uses discretion in her costume, never raises her voice and never, ever allows too much of her leg to show. Knees together, but covered. And if great-great-grandma could read "Skirts" by Kimberly Chrisman-Campbell, wow, would she be surprised.

Many hundred years ago, everybody wore a skirt, though it wasn't called a skirt then. It was a toga, kilt, tunic, robe that could be embellished to reflect one's status; it was mostly unisex, and quite egalitarian. Then came the Middle Ages, and a double-standard in fashion: men's clothing allowed more showing off, while women were deemed immodest for doing the same.

As years passed, women wore whatever they wanted, as long as it was a gown or dress. Even well into the last century, pants-wearing in public was generally frowned-upon.

Today, says Chrisman-Campbell, many women still choose skirts, though great-great-Grandma might've worn a flowy silk dress from designer Mariano Fortuny that harked back to togas and Greek goddesses. If she played tennis, she may've started out in long dresses that caught in her heels as she dived for a ball, until 1919 when tennis pro Suzanne Lenglen stepped onto the court in a calf-length sleeveless dress.

Coco Chanel introduced women to the anytime LBD ("little black dress"), which could be embellished up or down, while Elsa Schiaparelli did the same with the wrap dress. Hollywood made the strapless gown glamorous and teenagers made it popular. Marilyn Monroe put the "naked dress" in the gossip columns.

Hemlines have gone up, thanks in part to Mary Quant, and they went down, thanks to a mini backlash and the "prairie look." They swept the ground in everyday wear before settling into a whatever-works-for-you length. And now, says Chrisman-Campbell, we've come full circle and "pants are no longer the only option for men, either."

Lift "Skirts" and you may notice that leg-baring attire isn't the only thing you'll learn about. Author Kimberly Chrisman-Campbell is more expansive, with the story of several styles of dresses, designers, a good bit of cultural history, and to some extent, women's history. Those things widen what could have been a hemmed-in story.

Still, despite that this book is chock-full of little-known information for the average fashionista, and what's here is interesting, you might wonder about what's not included. Big-closet owners may notice holes in the narrative here or there; there's not much about some rather influential fashions and too much about others, and a lot about specific designers that the average reader might not recognize. Moreover, the impact of it all on society and women's rights sometimes seems frustratingly brief.

The reader who makes fashion a passion may find this book too shallow in its coverage and missing a few stitches overall. The reader who loves clothes and wants a lively, fun and light read, though, will think that "Skirts" is the bee's knees. ■

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF

BEVERLY J. CUNNINGHAM, Decedent

Case Number: 22PR00493

TO ALL HEIRS, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of BEVERLY J. CUNNINGHAM.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by MARY E. CUNNINGHAM, in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that MARY E. CUNNINGHAM, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

Date: DECEMBER 14, 2022 Time: 8:30 AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

UNLESS YOU TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY, IT MAY BE SOLD AT A PUBLIC SALE. IF YOU NEED AN EXPLANATION OF THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDING AGAINST YOU, YOU SHOULD CONTACT A LAWYER. A public auction sale to the highest bidder for cash, cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, check drawn by state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, or savings association, or savings bank specified in Section 5102 to the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state, will be held by duly appointed trustee. COLLIER MITCHELL, HUSBAND AND WIFE Recorded: 9/16/2002 as Instrument No. 2002-0065406 of Official Records in the office of the Recorder of SANTA CRUZ County, California; Date of Sale: 10/25/2022 at 1:45 PM Place of Sale: At the courtyard steps to the Santa Cruz County Courthouse, located at 701 Ocean Street, Santa Cruz, CA 95060 Amount of unpaid balance and other charges: $50,048.88 The purported property address is: 370 MANZANITA RD, BOULDER CREEK, CA 95006-8803 Assessor's Parcel No.: 083-043-05 NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee

auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-937780-CL. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 916-939-0772, or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-937780-CL to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE OWNER-OCCUPANT: Any prospective owner-occupant as defined in Section 2924m of the California Civil Code who is the last and highest bidder at the trustee's sale shall provide the required affidavit or declaration of eligibility to the auctioneer at the trustee's sale or shall have it delivered to Quality Loan Service Corporation by 5 p.m. on the next business day following the trustee's sale at the address set forth in the below signature block. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the sale is set aside for any reason, including if the Trustee is unable to convey title, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid to the Trustee. This shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney. If you have previously been discharged through bankruptcy, you may have been released of personal liability for this loan in which case this letter is intended to exercise the note holders right's against the real property only.
