Year of the Rabbit

We are entering the year of the Yin Water Rabbit. Enjoy this excerpt from CT Holman's forecast or read the full forecast at lotusinstitute.com/blogs.

"Rabbit: Rabbit represents the month of March and the time 5am to 7am, when animals emerge from their caves and wag their tails in the warm spring air. Powerful qi builds, expanding with new life energy. Rabbit is associated with the wood element, the color green, and the cardinal direction east. Personality traits include wisdom, ambition, skill, secrecy, and vitality. Rabbits run fast but also take time to rest and display gentleness. Rabbits live in dens, hidden securely underground, allowing them to restore their lively energy. They possess great strategic qualities and know when to act or retreat, thus 2023 holds awesome potential for putting a plan into action.

The nimble nature of rabbit empowers us to maneuver around any obstacles that arise in 2023. There can be old patterns or belief systems that hold you back and the rabbit's agility enables you to let go of these and just do it! Fortunately, rabbits are not risk-takers or fighters, and their cautious nature allows you to move forward with care and cultivate progress while considering of all various outcomes. The doors are open, and growth is quick."

Mr. Breakfast “A Novel”

by Jonathan Carroll

Pick a door.

So many times in life, that's the way it is. Pick a door, make a choice and see what happens. The path may be good, and it may be challenging but you've made your decision and you have to stick with it. Even so, you'll always wonder what might've happened if, as in the new novel, "Mr. Breakfast" by Jonathan Carroll, you made a different choice.

He had to face it: he wasn't funny.

For years, Graham Patterson had tried to make a career out of stand-up comedy but he finally had to face facts – which is how he found himself suddenly single, in a new car that needed repairs, near a dusty tattoo parlor in North Carolina, waiting for the mechanic to finish. He hadn't meant to get a tattoo, but, well, he did. He just did.

And man, it was beautiful, too: it was a bumblebee inside a frog inside a hawk inside a lion, like nesting Russian dolls. The colors were vivid and crisp and getting it hurt but not too much. As he pulled away from the little town, he figured the tattoo was a good souvenir.

But then weird things started happening. He saw a guy at a rest-stop who looked just like him; the guy had Graham's dream truck, and the contents inside the cab were identical to what was in Graham's car. The guy was talking on his cell phone about being on-stage, totally killing it, and the complete weirdness sent Graham right back to North Carolina, to the tattoo parlor, and the tattoo artist who inked him.

And that was when Graham Patterson learned that he had a choice.

The tattoo, the artist explained, was ancient and imbued with powers. Whoever had it on their body could visit other life possibilities and try them out, but they could only stay in one life. Graham could keep the life he had, or he could take Graham 2's life, or Graham 3's. And the deal was only good for a limited time...

Reading "Mr. Breakfast" is like being in a windstorm with butterflies.

Each flutter of this storyline alights gently, but not for long before it's swept away, replaced by a new wisp of promise and you're not exactly sure what just happened or if it'll come back. It's fragile, brilliant, ethereal, and it flies over your head sometimes.

It's easy to want to grab at it. Author Jonathan Carroll's tale is here, there, and everywhere at once and it's natural to need sense of it right away, but don't try too hard. Half the enjoyment in reading this novel lies in the imagery and the details of the story, because there is no fluff in this tale. The other half lies in the what-if dawning that we all have choices to make.

Pay attention, too, because you won't miss the humor inside this book, or the longing, or the real beauty of the prose. Pay attention, and you'll know that "Mr. Breakfast" is a book to pick. ■

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF GARRY DALE JOHNSON, Decedent

Case Number: 23PR00023

TO ALL HEIRS, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of GARRY DALE JOHNSON

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by CATRINA JOHNSON, in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that CATRINA JOHNSON, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

Date: MARCH 8, 2023, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
