Winter Storm 2017

End of An Era

The SS Palo Alto was built by the San Francisco Shipbuilding Company at the U.S. Naval Shipyard in Oakland. She was launched in May 1919, too late to see service in the war.

Palo Alto was mothballed in Oakland until 1929, when she was bought by the Seacliff Amusement Corp. and towed to Seacliff State Beach in Aptos. A pier was built leading to the ship in 1930, and she was refitted as an amusement ship, with amenities including a dance floor, a swimming pool and a café.

The company went bankrupt two years later during the Great Depression, and the ship cracked at the midsection during a winter storm. The State of California purchased the ship, and she was stripped of her fittings and left as a fishing pier. In the spring of 2005, oil found on wildlife was traced back to the ship, whose fuel tanks had cracked and were leaking fuel oil. In September 2006, a clean-up project was started that cost an estimated $1.7 million. During the clean-up, workers pumped 500 U.S. gallons of oil from the ship and discovered the carcasses of 200 birds and two harbor seals inside the wreck.

The ship continued to deteriorate after the clean-up. Subsequent decades have seen her be further broken by the sea, and winter storms in February 2016 pushed the wreck onto her starboard side and broke her rear half open. In January 2017 another winter storm tore the stern off the ship. And of course we all know that on January 5th of this year, yet another winter storm destroyed portions of the pier leading to the ship. What will be the next chapter of the SS Palo Alto... maybe a new surf point?

When Everyone Leads: How the Toughest Problems Get Seen and Solved

by Ed O'Malley & Julia McBride

You first. March to the head of the line, grab the top plate, raise your hand before anyone else does, you're not shy about taking charge or being first. Somebody needs to do it, to assume control, to step up and take responsibility. In the new book, "When Everyone Leads" by Ed O'Malley & Julia Fabris McBride, it might as well be you.

A few weeks into the new year and guess what: life is still full of challenges. Now's the time to learn that the way to get past them isn't through authority or a supervisor or a motivational break-out session. It's leadership that makes progress.

The problem is that, even at the top level, most of us don't lead. We practice "followership" that looks like leadership, but it isn't. Leadership is a way of "seeing and seizing moments to help a group move forward."

"If anyone can lead," say the authors, "then everyone can lead." And that means you, too.

There are five principles that will "guide your way."

First, you need authority but authority alone is not enough. Leadership is an action and it's essential for making progress. If you see a solution, don't sit on the sidelines: "Anyone can lead, anytime, anywhere." You cannot lead alone and fix the problem: you must gather others and get them involved, too. Remember that leading is not without risk and that leadership isn't for the easy things; it's "about our toughest challenges."

Identify what lies between right now and your imagined future, or what the authors call "The Gap." Be willing to see the negative things inside this dilemma, look down the road to identify rough spots, and encourage the rest of your team to contribute. Know the difficulties in closing The Gap. And when the time is right, "authorize yourself" to lead.

"Don't wait for permission to make things better."

If you're an employee, you may already be itching for what you'll learn inside "When Everyone Leads." Certainly, you can read it any time and it'll make you feel better about your job; in fact, it's full of ideas that you can use almost everywhere in your life. It's a great way to start seeking a better work situation.

Many employers will thank you for reading it carefully.

With a nice closed-circle method of teaching, authors Ed O'Malley & Julia Fabris McBride, both of the Kansas Leadership Center, turn the usual definition of "leadership" upside down. Here, leadership is not a seize-control-and-command, man-your-stations sort of thing; instead, the authors advise a gentler method that uses thoughtfulness, a hint of bravado, cooperation, and a more direct, literal look at the root word, "lead."

The distinction is essential. It almost begs for guidance in certain workplaces, so take note. This is a good read, and C-Suiters and experienced leaders will find in "When Everyone Leads" a deliberate, pleasant way to find hidden talent and bring up the next generation of leaders. Just tread cautiously: a group read may be a good idea, but you first. ■

SUMMONS

(CITACION JUDICIAL)

CASE NUMBER (Número del Caso): 22CV02448
NOTICE TO DEFENDANT (AVISO AL DEMANDADO): Bernice B. Marcroft (Additional Parties Attachment Form is below). YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF (LO ESTÁ DEMANDANDO EL DEMANDANTE):

Catherine Starr, Trustee of the Mary A. Leeman Irrevocable Trust dated February 22, 2021.

NOTICE! You have been sued. The court may decide against you without your being heard unless you respond within 30 days. Read the information below.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE: The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court will dismiss the case.

¡AVISO! Lo han demandado. Si no responde dentro de 30 días, la corte puede decidir en su contra sin escuchar su versión. Lea la información a continuación.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia. Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.sucorte.ca.gov) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales. AVISO: Por ley, la corte tiene derecho a reclamar las cuotas y los costos exentos por imponer un gravamen sobre cualquier recuperación de $10,000 ó más de valor recibida mediante un acuerdo o una concesión de arbitraje en un caso de derecho civil. Tiene que pagar el gravamen de la corte antes de que la corte pueda desechar el caso.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF SIMPLICIO MAGNO, Decedent

Case Number: 23PR00013

TO ALL HEIRS, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of SIMPLICIO MAGNO.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by EMILY CAINE, in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that EMILY CAINE, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:
Date: MARCH 8, 2023, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California

Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

GARRY DALE JOHNSON, Decedent

Case Number: 23PR00023

TO ALL HEIRS, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of GARRY DALE JOHNSON

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by CATRINA JOHNSON, in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that CATRINA JOHNSON, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

Date: MARCH 8, 2023, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
