Sienna House + Stockwell Cellars

Stockwell Cellars winery has embarked on a special collaboration with Sienna House, an incredible organization dedicated to supporting new mothers experiencing homelessness and giving their babies a strong start in life.

At Sienna House, their mission resonates deeply with Stockwell Cellars' commitment to making a positive impact on our community.

Sienna House provides unwavering support to new mothers throughout their pregnancy journey and their baby's critical first year of development, creating a foundation for brighter futures.

In line with this wonderful partnership, there is a heartwarming upcoming event that combines fine flavors and meaningful support.

Come enjoy an exclusive Oyster Pop-Up, hosted by the renowned Parker Presents. Indulge in a delectable assortment of oysters expertly paired with Stockwell Cellar's finest wines, all while contributing to the incredible work Sienna House does for new mothers and their babies.

This fantastic event is scheduled for Sunday Sept. 17th from 2-5, at Stockwell Cellars, 1100 Fair Ave. Santa Cruz CA 95060. Your participation will not only treat your taste buds but also make a difference in the lives of those in need, as 20% of the proceeds will benefit Sienna House.

All Pride, No Ego: A Queer Executive's Journey to Living and Leading Authentically

by Jim Fielding

Auditions are always nerve-wracking. Will the part be yours?

You sure practiced enough before you were judged – and that's what an audition is, a judgment. Can you handle the lines? Are you a fit for the part you want, or would you be better at a walk-on? Being someone else in a play is fun, but not always easy. Neither, says Jim Fielding in his new book "All Pride, No Ego," is being someone else at work.

Born in Toledo into a big extended clan, Jim Fielding says that it looked like he was a member of "the perfect, nuclear family." The truth was, though, that "vulnerabilities and dysfunctions were numerous" and that included homophobia, which was a problem: when he was six years old, Fielding realized he was gay.

To cover for it, he became an over-achiever with a lack of self-confidence and an abundance of insecurities. To help him to conquer his weaknesses, he built a great support system but still, "I wish I had a book like this when I was starting out in my career."

His first point here is his mantra: "Control the controllable, but leave space for the possible."

Color "within the lines" if you must, but do it at "a company whose ethics and values align with your own."

If you're in control, set clear goals, "hire people who are smarter than you are" and get to know them well.

"Never stop learning." Accept that you can forgive without forgetting transgressions. Remember that if the job is right, you won't have to change who you fundamentally are. Learn to "define it works for you..." Know the difference between want and need. Trust your intuition, tamp down impulsiveness, but be flexible – which will help you attract and keep the best team possible. Know that selfishness is a righteous thing sometimes.

Strive always for "cultures of excellence."

And always "leave [your] corner of the world a better place than [you] found it." Donate. Volunteer. Do good.

In his preface, author Jim Fielding says that he wrote this book because he "realized that my leadership style and success... are completely dependent on my personal journey." Those words should alert readers that "All Pride, No Ego" is preponderantly a memoir, which isn't a bad thing but it bears mentioning.

If you don't have the patience it takes for rambling stories, you won't like this book at all, in fact. Fielding is a storyteller, and he smartly uses his experiences to show, not tell, in a way that's pleasant and relatable for anyone who's ever struggled at work. Yes, the workplace tales mean that business advice is sometimes embedded, sometimes apparent, and sometimes down a rabbit hole for you to follow but for most readers, it'll be a useful scavenger hunt.

While this book is perhaps best for the person who's looking for a first job or who just found one and is sweating to fit in, "All Pride, No Ego" is worthwhile for anyone. Enjoy the memoir, find the helpful parts. ■

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF
JULIET Y. KAYE, Decedent

Case Number: 23PR00417

TO ALL HEIRS, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of JULIET Y. KAYE; JULIET YOLANDA KAY; JULIET YOLANDA ZUCKER.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by CLAUDINE M. KAYE, in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that CLAUDINE M. KAYE, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: Date: 11/08/2023, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

LINDA JANE MINTON, Decedent

Case Number: 23PR00411

TO ALL HEIRS, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of LINDA JANE MINTON; LINDA JANE WOLGOMONT; LINDA JANE WIMMER.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by ZACHARY LEE MINTON, in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that ZACHARY LEE MINTON, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: Date: 11/08/2023, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF
GERALD CHARLES BARNES JR.,
Decedent

Case Number: 23PR00430

TO ALL HEIRS, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of GERALD CHARLES BARNES JR.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by JADE CASE-BARNES, in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that JADE CASE-BARNES, be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: Date: 11/08/2023, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
