When Women Ran Fifth Avenue: Glamour and Power at the Dawn of American Fashion

by Julie Satow

You can almost do it with your eyes closed.

Grab a new shirt, snag a new jacket, find accessories to go with them, and you're so familiar with your favorite store that you barely have to think.

The place is almost like a second home, staffed by friends – and as you'll see in the new book "When Women Ran Fifth Avenue" by Julie Satow, it might've once been a ground-breaker.

Shopping is relaxing. It's therapy. It's addicting and early in the last century, department stores were places for dreams and opportunity. Not only did they sell clothing and make-up, but some stores also allowed shoppers to send a telegram, see a doctor, adopt a baby, even plan weddings or funerals. For women, the stores' primary customers, department stores held luxury, grandeur, imagination, a bit of pampering, and just the right outfit, only steps inside the door.

Women shopped, men ran most of America's businesses, and few questioned the status quo. Except, says Satow, a handful of women did step up and take the reins, and they changed how we shop today.

Hortense Odlum, once a good Mormon girl, took over New York's Bonwit Teller because her husband, Floyd, owned it as part of his portfolio. Under her control, the store made $9.5 million during the Depression because she recognized that America's working women wanted decent fashions, too.

When Dorothy Shaver's sister, Elsie, created small dolls and a story to go with them, Dorothy approached a distant cousin to sell them. Unbeknownst to her, he was the president of Lord & Taylor. He merchandised the dolls, and invited Dorothy to work for him; later, as president of the store, she invited the public to learn about American clothing designers.

Maggie Walker founded St. Luke Emporium so Black customers had a place to shop. Geraldine Stutz assumed control of a small store, turned it into a series of boutique shops, and changed the way we browse.

And then malls came into the picture...

Sometimes, it's hard to believe that dressing up to go downtown was once mandatory, that nobody left the house without a hat, and that gloves and pumps completed an outfit. "When Women Ran Fifth Avenue" brings that time strongly to mind.

When it comes to shopping, change was good, thanks to a few women who knew what other women wanted and author Julie Satow tells the all-but-hidden story of their accomplishments – some at a time when women barely had the right to vote. In revealing these tales, Satow also takes readers back decades to an America that now seems quaint, like an old black-and-white movie or a scrapbook filled with past advertisements. You'll be surprised at what you'll read, pleased at the nostalgia here, and grateful that Satow's subjects did what they did.

This book is a fun, informative, and highly fascinating read and will interest even the most fervently internet-driven shopper. If you've had your wallet out any time recently, you'll enjoy "When Women Ran Fifth Avenue," so keep your eyes open for it. ■

NOTICE OF PETITION
TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF

MARIO LUIGI GIOVACCHINI, aka

MARIO LOUIE GIOVACCHINI, Decedent

Case Number: 24PR00236

TO ALL heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of MARIO LUIGI GIOVACCHINI, aka MARIO LOUIE GIOVACCHINI.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by DAVID BECCARIA in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that DAVID BECCARIA be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: Date: JULY 29, 2024, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF

ALAN JAMES WADCOCK, Decedent

Case Number: 24PR00252

TO ALL heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of ALAN JAMES WADCOCK.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by SHEILA ANN KEARNS in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that SHEILA ANN KEARNS be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval.

Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: Date: AUGUST 14, 2024, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

SUMMONS AND STATEMENT OF DAMAGES

CASE NUMBER (Número del Caso): 22CV02437

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT (AVISO AL DEMANDADO): CESAR ALVARADO, an individual; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive.

NOTICE TO THE PERSON SERVED: You are served as the person sued under the fictitious name of : DOE 1 and DOE 6, the true name of which Defendants is MANUEL LOPEZ.

YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF (LO ESTÁ DEMANDANDO EL DEMANDANTE): MARY CAHILL, an individual

NOTICE! You have been sued. The court may decide against you without your being heard unless you respond within 30 days. Read the information below.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California

Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE: The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court will dismiss the case.

¡AVISO! Lo han demandado. Si no responde dentro de 30 días, la corte puede decidir en su contra sin escuchar su versión. Lea la información a continuación.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.sucorte.ca.gov) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales. AVISO: Por ley, la corte tiene derecho a reclamar las cuotas y los costos exentos por imponer un gravamen sobre cualquier recuperación de $10,000 ó más de valor recibida mediante un acuerdo o una concesión de arbitraje en un caso de derecho civil. Tiene que pagar el gravamen de la corte antes de que la corte pueda desechar el caso.

TO ALL heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of PEDRO M. FRANCO, PEDRO
ANTONIO FRANCO, PEDRO ANTONIO FRANCO MOLINA.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed

by ARMIDA FRANCO in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that ARMIDA FRANCO be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval.
Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: Date: AUGUST 14, 2024,
Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
