Santa Cruz Shakespeare

Santa Cruz Shakespeare (SCS), our nationally recognized professional theatre company, with deep local roots that go back more than 40 years, announced that tickets are on sale now for its expanded 2024 Summer Festival at santacruzshakespeare.org. Performances will take place from July 13 through September 28 in the Audrey Stanley Grove (The Grove) in Santa Cruz's DeLaveaga Park.

This year's Summer Festival will include four plays during its repertory season: As You Like It and Hamlet by William Shakespeare, The Importance of Being Earnest by Oscar Wilde, and The Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams.

"Each of the shows of the 2024 season deals directly with the next generation inheriting the world," said Charles Pasternak, Artistic Director of SCS. "Sometimes that demands escaping what came before, never to return; sometimes that demands returning, after escaping to find growth, and love, and unity; sometimes that demands redefining oneself in the face of the old world's expectations; sometimes that demands a violent struggle with the older generation, and with oneself. There is humor in much of it, tragedy in some, and catharsis in all. Between the pull of the past and the drive of the future, the world changes; it is inevitable, and the 2024 season will look to some of the greatest playwrights of the western canon to explore and understand this vital moment; the readiness is all."

"We are thrilled to welcome our community back to The Grove for our expanded 2024 summer season," said Lorne Dechtenberg, Managing Director of Santa Cruz Shakespeare, own fresh energy to our programming."

The seasonal Box Office is open Tuesday through Thursday from 12p.m. to 4p.m. Call 831-460-6399.

Power and Glory: Elizabeth II and the Rebirth of Royalty

by Alexander Larman

It's a mess. And now it's all yours to clear up.

Over time, too many hands tweaked this thing, dropped the ball, subtracted important aspects, added pet projects and then they dumped it in your lap to fix. You get to untangle the knots. You must replace unneeded with helpful and reclaim a reputation. It was someone else's mess to make and, as in "Power and Glory" by Alexander Larman, it's your mess now.

Had you been near Buckingham Palace on the evening of May 8, 1945, you might've witnessed quite a sight: two teenage princesses, kicking and cavorting with their fellow countrymen in celebration of the end of World War II. Surely, the war's end was a weight off the shoulders of 19-year-old Princess Elizabeth, the future queen.

Her father hadn't asked to be King. Elizabeth hadn't requested the throne, either, but her Uncle David, the Duke of Windsor, had tossed Great Britain into a tizzy when he fell in love with a divorced American and famously stepped aside. Elizabeth was just a little girl then and her father had dutifully assumed control with some struggle, but the Royal Family couldn't forgive the Duke for what he'd done. He was an embarrassment that got worse when it was revealed that he'd been deeply involved with Nazis during the war.

As for Elizabeth, she endured a different kind of embarrassment: courting in public.

It was one of Royalty's "worst-guarded secrets" that Prince Philip of Greece had caught the eye of the young Princess, but the Royal family wasn't totally keen on him. Still, he won them over, the engagement was announced, they married, and they lived happily ever after.

Until King George VI died in 1952 and the Princess became Queen with all-new problems.

George "had hoped to revitalise the monarchy," says Larman, but would run out of time before he could do so. It now seemed clear that his successor would have to continue the job for him."

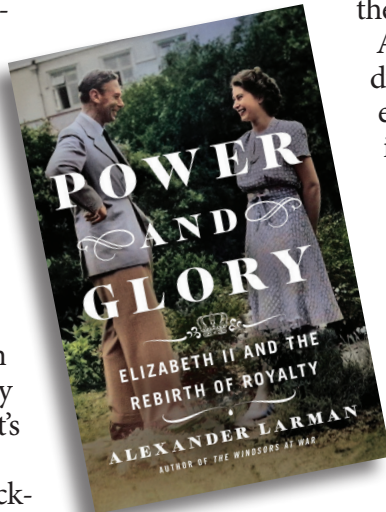

All this may sound a little British-stiff-upper-lip-ish, doesn't it? You'll be glad it's not; author Alexander Larman tells a mid-century tale with so many tiny details and small stories that you'll be pleased and delighted.

Part of the appeal is the palace intrigue he shares.

Politicking is everywhere inside "Power and Glory," and the backdoor wrangling, scheming, and secret decision-making makes good reading, if nothing but because we know how this all ends. Larman also shows readers sides of the Duke and Duchess of Windsor – anger, plotting, befuddlement, and ultimate banishment – that feel fresh but also rather sad, in the end. Yes, Larman's timeline bounces about a bit too much, but the back-and-forth works as a foundation to keep readers grounded in the main story of Queen Elizabeth's astounding sense of duty and her lifelong work.

"Power and Glory," in fact, will give you a new appreciation of her efforts to become relevant and to revive the Royal Family. It's lively and readable, with a touch of wry humor – it's clearly a book you need. ■

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF ALAN JAMES WADCOCK, Decedent

Case Number: 24PR00252

TO ALL heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of ALAN JAMES WADCOCK.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by SHEILA ANN KEARNS in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that COLETTE SWEERS be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: Date: AUGUST 14, 2024, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

NOTICE OF PETITION

TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF

LORETTA MAE JOHNSON, Decedent

Case Number: 24PR00607

TO ALL heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of LORETTA MAE JOHNSON aka LORETTA

MAE FARIA JOHNSON.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by SHELLEY A. CHALMERS in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that SHELLEY A. CHALMERS be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: Date: AUGUST 19, 2024, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by SHEILA ANN KEARNS in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that COLETTE SWEERS be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: Date: AUGUST 14, 2024, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.
