Hope Dies Last: Visionary People Across the World, Fighting to Find Us a Future

by Alan Weisman

A three-minute shower. That's just one of the things you're doing to help the planet. You run the dishwasher once a week, hang your clothes on a rack to dry, sustainable goods go in your cart as much as possible, and you buy second-hand often. Yours is just one family, but you do your part – as do those in the new book “Hope Dies Last” by Alan Weisman.

Ever since humans learned to mold their surroundings for the sake of survival, we've done so. We created agriculture to replace hunting and gathering. We've built machines and cities to house ourselves. Over time, these things created an imbalance in nature that some believe is permanently, irreversibly set.

In this book, Weisman shows otherwise. He traveled the world to report what's being done to ensure that humans – who admittedly didn't create all the planet's problems – are still thriving decades, centuries from now.

He says there are four world emergencies that need “near-miraculous” intervention.

First, the Earth's plants and creatures, including those we don't fully understand, must be saved. Second, we must take steps to remove at least some of the CO2 that's in our atmosphere, or bad weather will worsen. Thirdly, we must pay attention to how our food is grown or planted so that the world's burgeoning population can be fed without further harming the planet. And lastly, we need to bring that population down, which is both easy to do, and difficult.

Already, though, scientists and activists are trying to get on top of these issues.

Weisman writes about an engineer born near the Persian Gulf, who hopes to reverse the damage Saddam Hussein did to ancient marshland. Chemists and geneticists are studying ways to grow food with airborne particles. Astronomers, Native American activists, farmers, and residents of the only Covid-free island in the world are doing their parts.

Says Weisman, the hope is that they will succeed, thus allowing humanity to continue to thrive.

Did you ever totally miss that something had disappeared? It was so familiar to you, so always there that someone had to point out that it was gone? That's the feeling you get when you read “Hope Dies Last.” The call for open eyes and action is here.

And yet, it's going to take the most determined, most open-minded reader to fully appreciate this book. Author Alan Weisman takes us around the world to show us the work that's mostly hidden to combat problems we know too well – and from Page One, it's a thinking-person's journey, filled with science, history, and world culture. That's not to deter you; it's to alert you to the pace you'll need here to fully grasp what you'll read, and the broad-mindedness you'll want to have.

So go into this book, ready to learn and be amazed, but go slow. You'll be delighted by small things, awed by big ones, and you might be spurred to act, once you've read “Hope Dies Last.” Just remember that even getting into it will take a minute. ■

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF DIANNE L. OLIVIERI, Decedent

Case Number: 25PR00180

TO ALL heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of DIANNE L. OLIVIERI.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by TRACY ZEISS in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that TRACY ZEISS be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

Date: JUNE 11, 2025, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

JEFFREY A. TILLOTSON, Decedent

Case Number: 25PR00192

TO ALL heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of JEFFREY A. TILLOTSON a.k.a. JEFF TILLOTSON

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by JENNIFER A. ANDERSEN in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION requests that JENNIFER A. ANDERSEN be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

Date: JUNE 11, 2025, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
