LOCAL BUSINESS STARTS HERE

Downtown Pops!

The City of Santa Cruz Economic Development Office is now accepting a second round of Downtown Pops applications to fill retail spaces on Pacific Avenue.

Downtown Pops! is the City's pilot program designed to lower the barriers to entry for businesses looking to open a brick and mortar space. In addition, the program intends to reduce the risk for property owners to take on new tenants during challenging times. Through the program, the City enters a master lease with downtown commercial property owners with vacant spaces on Pacific Avenue, provides a guaranteed minimum rent, and then sub-leases these spaces to various pop-up tenants for a six-month term. Lease terms are set at 5% of monthly sales. Long term lease options may be negotiated with the broker or property owner based on initial six-month term.

The Downtown Pops! Program is seeking aspiring new businesses with sound business concepts, established successful businesses with temporary expansion needs or looking to prototype new products or concepts, and other creative pop-ups designed to activate and invite downtown engagement.

Preference will be given to local business owners, women, and people of color.

The City of Santa Cruz has released a Program Guide for prospective tenants for the Downtown Pops! Program. You can find the Program Guide document and more information at <https://choosesantacruz.com/downtownpops>

If you need assistance preparing a business plan or financial projections, please contact the Small Business Development Center at www.santacruzsbdc.org

Applicants in this round may also be considered for future spaces. Applications for this round are due by July 31, 2022.

The Brain at Rest: How the Art and Science of Doing Nothing Can Improve Your Life

by Joseph Jebelli, PhD

The wall in front of you hasn't moved in at least fifteen minutes. You know because you've been staring at it this whole time, your mind lost in thought but not on the task at hand. In other words, you were daydreaming and you just wasted a quarter of an hour – or did you? As you'll see in “The Brain at Rest” by Joseph Jebelli, PhD, you may've been doing exactly the right thing.

Joseph Jebelli remembers that his father was a man driven. The elder Jebelli worked long hours, up early, desk-bound all day and apparently hating it, until one evening he came home, spent. Jebelli's his mother took her husband to a doctor, where he received a diagnosis of severe depression.

Jebelli was ten years old. His father never worked again.

Despite all that, Jebelli was likewise driven to overachieve but as time passed, his life became a shambles and he knew he needed to step back. He started by retreating slowly and gently away from too much work, which took awhile. Eventually, things began to change and he reports now that his well-being has improved considerably. If that's not proof enough, studies show that if volunteers are given a ten- or twenty-minute rest before or during a random task, they generally exhibit greatly-enhanced performance. Similar studies indicate that overwork can actually harm a business's bottom line.

It may take effort to learn to do nothing, but Jebelli has suggestions: stare at a wall for at least twenty minutes a day and let your mind wander during that time. Schedule rest breaks. Go outside, or just outside your office. Find something new to try at least once a week. Understand that isolation and solitude aren't always bad things, and that not socializing is okay. Hit the “snooze” on your alarm and laze for ten minutes each morning. Play, exercise, reconnect with nature. And embrace what the Danes call niksen, which is the art of doing nothing...

Perhaps, in an idle moment, you've noticed that there are a lot of books on the shelves about resistance, rest, and rejuvenation. There's a reason for that, and author Joseph Jebelli PhD brings it all clearly home in “The Brain at Rest.” Starting with a personal story that may chill overextended readers, Jebelli shows what a too-packed schedule can do to the human body and mind. By using advice and his own experiences, he shows that disconnecting is hard but worthwhile, which is news that can be encouraging, particular if you're someone who's driven, competitive, and totally Type-A.

Don't worry that retreat is counterproductive or that doing nothing might be boring; instead, look for the solid source-list to take to your next meeting. Do know that some of the advice you'll find in this book is repetitive, but that's okay. You may need to see ideas more than once, if you're overstressed, overworked, overscheduled, overthinking and over it.

In that case, you'll be encouraged by “The Brain at Rest.” What's here may ultimately help you move mountains. ■

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by PETER ANGELO BELLONZI in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION for Probate requests that (name): PETER ANGELO BELLONZI be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

Date: JULY 9, 2025, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. Case Number: 25PR00278

TO ALL heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by JULIE C. PRATT in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION for Probate requests that (name): JULIE C. PRATT be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

Date: AUGUST 13, 2025, Time: 8:30AM Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250.
