LOCAL BUSINESS STARTS HERE

WWW.SANTACRUZRECORD.COM

Santa Cruz Area Chamber of Commerce

Kristen Brown, Executive Director, of the Santa Cruz Area Chamber of Commerce has a message for you about shopping locally to support our Santa Cruz County businesses and Artists.

The holiday season is a great time to support the small businesses that keep Santa Cruz vibrant. Every neighborhood in our county benefits when we choose to shop, dine, and spend locally, but this year that support is especially important for a few key areas.

Our Downtown businesses continue to face significant economic pressures, so discovering a new shop, grabbing gifts, or enjoying a meal before or after a local event strengthens our downtown core. On Saturday, December 13, from 10 am to 5 pm, the Tannery Arts Center will come alive with creativity for the 13th Annual Winter Art Market. Proudly presented by Arts Council Santa Cruz County, this beloved holiday tradition brings together artists, families, and community members to enjoy art, music, food, and festive cheer..

In Seabright, the temporary Murray Street closure has created real challenges for businesses on both sides of the harbor. Despite the detour, these businesses remain open, offering everything from dining and coffee to retail and services. Making the extra effort to visit Seabright right now makes a noticeable impact.

Beyond our local business districts, countless small businesses in our community are powered by sole proprietors: artists, photographers, writers, makers, and professional service providers who enrich our local economy. Consider purchasing their goods or services as gifts for loved ones this season. A portrait session, a handmade item, a custom design, or a local creative service can make a meaningful holiday gift. From Downtown to Seabright to the Harbor and across every corner of Santa Cruz County, your support for local businesses matters. This season, choose local when you shop, dine, gather, and celebrate. If you have been considering Chamber membership, December offers an added benefit. Join now and your membership begins immediately, so the month of December for free! www.santacruzchamber.org

The Grave Robber: The Biggest Stolen Artifacts Case in FBI History and the Bureau's Quest to Set Things Right

by Tim Carpenter

You wouldn't call yourself a perfectionist.

Still, if something is amiss, you feel a need to make it right. Something's broken, you fix it. If it's off, you make it right. That goes for minor issues or, as in the new book "The Grave Robber" by Tim Carpenter, matters of grave importance.

The tipsters were adamant. Don Carlin Miller had "Indian bones."

And so, on a cool, cloudy fall afternoon, FBI bomb tech coordinator and sometime art crime expert Tim Carpenter and one of his associates headed to a remote property near Indianapolis, in search of the truth.

Miller was well-known to the FBI; years earlier, he'd bragged that he was involved in the Manhattan Project and had some uranium in his possession. A case was filed in 2008 and he gave up those souvenirs, but this was different: Carpenter, who was "eager for a good art crime case," had gotten photographs of Native American remains on Miller's property.

A meeting was arranged and Carpenter was careful to stay above the law. Introduced as someone with interest in antiquities, he paid close attention as Miller showed him around, and he noticed items that gave him pause. Furthermore, Miller, then around 90 years old, loved to tell stories and some of his tales confirmed what Carpenter suspected.

Over the course of decades, Miller had robbed Native American graves. Recovering them would take enormous effort.

Miller ultimately gave up the remains and stolen items without a fight and so, over the course of several days, Carpenter waded through many months of bureaucracy and red tape before leading an FBI team of experts, students, and agents through Miller's home and outbuildings. There, hidden in secret rooms, moldering closets, paper bags, and in plain sight, they found "hundreds of people's bones" – most dug hastily and amateurishly, some in abysmal shape, most stored or displayed disrespectfully.

Miller considered himself somewhat of an expert in the field, but that wasn't the case at all. Says Carpenter, he "wasn't just a bad digger, he was far worse – nothing more than an unabashed grave robber."

Wow. Be prepared to say it loud and say it often because "The Grave Robber" is a stunning story on many levels.

There's the book's raison d'être: the sometimes-thrilling tale of horrifying plunder and wrongly assumed privilege, both set right like a skewed, often obscene treasure hunt in reverse. True crime fans and those who love a good FBI procedural will be excited to see how author Tim Carpenter explains his case, how it proceeded and how it ended, with just enough biography inside the tale to make it personal. And history buffs will absolutely relish the backstory and the reasons the case came about in the first place.

If you're a fan of all of the above genres, well, what are you waiting for?

Though it contains what is often a confusing alphabet soup or FBI acronyms, "The Grave Robber" is a can't-miss story that'll have you glued to your chair. For nonfiction readers like you, it's perfection. ~

SUMMONS (Citacion Judicial)

CASE NUMBER (Número del Caso): 25CV00450
NOTICE TO DEFENDANT (AVISO AL DEMANDADO): MARIA RODRIGUEZ-VAZQUEZ; and DOES 1 through 40, inclusive.

YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF (LO ESTÁ DEMANDANDO EL DEMANDANTE): STATE FARM MUTUAL AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE COMPANY.

NOTICE! You have been sued. The court may decide against you without your being heard unless you respond within 30 days. Read the information below.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE: The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court will dismiss the case.

¡AVISO! Lo han demandado. Si no responde dentro de 30 días, la corte puede decidir en su contra sin escuchar su versión. Lea la información a continuación.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar es-tos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.sucorte.ca.gov) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales. AVISO: Por ley, la corte tiene derecho a reclamar las cuotas y los costos exentos por imponer un gravamen sobre cualquier recuperación de $10,000 ó más de valor recibida mediante un acuerdo o una concesión de arbitraje en un caso de derecho civil. Tiene que pagar el gravamen de la corte antes de que la corte pueda desechar el caso.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF

ANTHONY TONY BUKSA, aka ANTHONY T. BUKSA, Decedent

Case Number: 25PR00562

TO ALL heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of ANTHONY TONY BUKSA, aka ANTHONY T. BUKSA.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by MARIO BUKSA in the Superior Court of California, County of SANTA CRUZ.

THE PETITION for Probate requests that (name): MARIO BUKSA be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows:

Date: FEBRUARY 11, 2026, Time: 8:30am Dept. 10

The address of the Court is 701 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA 95060.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the Court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the Court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the Court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the Court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
