Michelle Silbaugh Designs

For Michelle Silbaugh, every home should tell the story of the people who live there.

Born and raised in Santa Cruz County, Michelle finds inspiration in the redwoods, coastline, historic architecture, travel, and craftsmanship from cultures around the world.

"I've always been fascinated by places that have soul," she says. "I love the history, the details, and the way nature can completely change how a space feels."

After raising her family, the dream she'd carried for years became impossible to ignore. "I always knew this was what I wanted to do. The calling just got louder until

I finally said yes." That's what led her back to school to study interior design and start Michelle Silbaugh Designs. Today, Michelle creates homes that reflect each client's story and support them in living it. "I want people to feel peaceful, inspired, and free to be their authentic, beautiful selves."

Shut Up and Read: A Memoir from Harriett's Bookshop

by Jeannine A. Cook

Shhhhhhhh. It's an old wives' tale that that's what librarians always say. Shhhhhhhh, hush yourself, be silent, don't be so loud, no talking. Shhhhhh, quiet is what makes a library appealing for many folks. As in the new book, "Shut Up and Read" by Jeannine A. Cook, though, the bookstore is where you can really make some noise.

She had no plans to live in Philadelphia.

But that's where Jeannine Cook landed after she graduated high school – in Philly, in college, living in a "shell" of a house with occasional rats and junkies. She stayed, though, fell in love with the city of Brotherly Love, and made plans in the form of college essays. She wanted to do something good for her community, to teach youth, and put books in the hands of the people who needed to read.

As it's been throughout her life, Cook was supported in this plan by "Aunties" and sister-friends, and by "angels" who often appeared. She also appealed to her muse, Harriett Tubman, whose name graces Cook's first physical bookstore.

But Harriett's didn't happen easily. Cook understood that she needed to own the building that housed her bookstore, and the owner finally decided to sell it to her. The closing took more time than expected; she was in Paris when purchase day came unexpectedly, so she had to fly back home quickly to get it done. There were problems with construction workers, problems with stock and events and building additional bookstores in New Jersey and in Paris. Problems with safety, in the aftermath of George Floyd's murder, and Breonna Taylor's murder, and the riots that followed.

There were times, she says, when she felt like she was drowning. Her mother had gone back to the Caribbean, her father was dying (again), but Cook stayed the course.

She knew that books were the answer. That's the mantra she said every day when she got out of bed: books would always be humanity's salvation.

Go ahead, admit it: you need more books. And while you're at it, you need this one.

"Shut Up and Read" is a sweet story with grit, determination, and magic. Anyone who's ever looked for room on their calendar and found none will identify with it. Anyone who's ever dreamed larger than large will find parallel in author Jeannine A. Cook's words. If you've had a hero or two in mind when you launch a difficult endeavor, this is your book. Struggled with your health and that of an aggravating but much-loved family member, yep. Ever wondered how you're going to get things done, uh-huh. It's all shared, novel-like, held together by coincidence and magic and heartbreak, surprises, customer-service smiles, an "overground underground railroad," literature, and an artificial leg named Lester. Yeah, it's everything you're thinking, and there's room for it on your shelf.

Hush little reader, here is your book. "Shut Up and Read" is so worth a look. And if opening a bookstore was ever a lure, this is a book that you'll love for shhhhhh-hure. ~

BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (855) 313-3319 or visit this Internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 145712-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1, 2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (855) 313-3319, or visit this internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 145712-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. FOR SALES INFORMATION: (855) 313-3319 CLEAR RECON CORP 3333 Camino Del Rio South, Suite 225 San Diego, California 92108
