Salt Studios

Karen Moeller, is the Founder of a new boutique fitness studio called Salt Studios located in the heart of the Westside. The workout is high-energy, low-impact, and deeply intentional, with three thoughtfully designed rooms and a wide range of formats, and experiences, led by talented, inspiring instructors.

"We are thrilled to introduce the first dedicated Lagree studio in Santa Cruz", says Karen. Lagree blends the principles of Pilates, cardio, and strength training on the patented Lagree reformer. The method uses variable spring resistance and slow, controlled movements to challenge endurance, and strengthen the entire body.

Salt Studios offers a state of the art HOT space for group mat classes rooted in Pilates and yoga principles, and the third studio will be the hub for Bounce/Rebounding Classes. Salt will also offer small group mat classes as well. Consider this your personal invitation into a new kind of self-care, one that's refined, empowering, and truly transformative. www.liveinsalt.com

Entrepreneur Like a Mother: Build a Company That Buys You Freedom Not Owns Your Life

by Beth Mazza & Victoria Sivrais

Left. Right.

You have two hands. Two arms, and a brain that can hold several thoughts at once, which means you're capable of doing complicated things, like keeping track of yourself, your family, and your job. Thinking otherwise is just silly, so read "Entrepreneur Like a Mother" by Beth Mazza & Victoria Sivrais and take advantage of it.

Imagine all the things a CEO does, and pumping breast milk is likely not one of them. Neither is giving birth, and it's time we change that kind of thinking, says Mazza and Sivrais.

It's never too late to be an entrepreneur and here, they talk directly a sweet-spot in age: "The average woman with an advanced degree has her first child at 30," they say, "and the average age of a start-up founder is 36."

The first thing to know is that "It's a process" and processes take time. Be sure that this is the best idea for you and your family before you launch. Secondly, forget the "old script" and find a new mantra. The likelihood of being the CEO of a big business is low, but you truly can be your own CEO.

Know that financing may be tricky, so be prepared for some complications but remember that "many corporate jobs come with... financial instability, but we've just been trained to see it differently."

Be "brutally honest" with yourself at all times. Make a business, not "a hobby with a business card." Know your TAM and do your research. Put together a "kitchen cabinet" of advisors you can lean on. Learn to pivot and know when it's time to tear things apart.

"Every day, millions of women are launching businesses… and proving that the traditional playbook was never the only way.

The funding gap is real. The bias is real. The exhaustion is real. But so is our determination."

Right from the outset, authors Beth Mazza and Victoria Sivrais impress upon readers what their lives are like, as entrepreneurs, and it's breathless chaos.

True or not, it's too much information, and it may drive readers away.

But don't let it. Take a breath, and skip the introduction of "Entrepreneur Like a Mother," if you want. It's okay; the rest of the book is the meat you need.

That's where the authors make future entrepreneurs understand how to be their own boss and their kids' mother, in an up-to-date, more possible You-Can-Have-It-All kind of way. In that respect, this book is helpful. Also helpful is the enhanced amount of information you'll get; it's much more than you'll find in many other books for women entrepreneurs, and the point-blank honesty here is eye-opening for a reason. First-person author tales allow readers to see potential, pitfalls, and pleasures that can come with owning your own company.

Try to ignore the chaos the authors share, don't let it overwhelm you, and be prepared to take lots of notes. If you're ready to control your own life, "Entrepreneur Like a Mother" can help make it right. ~ —In California, foreclosure is the legal process a lender uses to take and sell a home when the borrower stops making mortgage payments. Most California foreclosures are nonjudicial, meaning they generally happen without a court case.

Briefly, the process is: Missed payments: The borrower falls behind on the mortgage.

Notice of Default: After certain requirements are met, the lender/trustee can record a Notice of Default, formally starting the foreclosure process.

Reinstatement period: The borrower generally has an opportunity to bring the loan current before the property can be sold.

Notice of Trustee's Sale: If the default isn't cured, the lender schedules a foreclosure auction and provides the required notice.

Trustee's sale: The property is auctioned, typically to the highest qualified bidder.

After the sale: The winning bidder generally becomes the owner, subject to existing liens and encumbrances and applicable legal rights and exceptions. California also has important rules concerning deficiency judgments, tenant rights, and homeowner protections.

California has additional protections for homeowners, including requirements concerning foreclosure alternatives and restrictions on certain foreclosure practices. View full notices publishing in the issue page 11

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE TS No. CA-26-1057613-AB Order No.: FIN-26018530 YOU ARE IN DEFAULT UNDER A DEED OF TRUST DATED 10/26/2023. UNLESS YOU TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY, IT MAY BE SOLD AT A PUBLIC SALE. IF YOU NEED AN EXPLANATION OF THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDING AGAINST YOU, YOU SHOULD CONTACT A LAWYER. A public auction sale to the highest bidder for cash, or cash equivalent if deemed acceptable to the trustee, cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, check drawn by state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, or savings association, or savings bank specified in Section 5102 to the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state, will be held by duly appointed trustee. The sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, expressed or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the note(s) secured by the Deed of Trust, with interest and late charges thereon, as provided in the note(s), advances, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, interest thereon, fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee for the total amount (at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale) reasonably estimated to be set forth below. The amount may be greater on the day of sale. BENEFICIARY MAY ELECT TO BID LESS THAN THE TOTAL AMOUNT DUE. Trustor(s): Robert A. Morgan, successor trustee of the Karen Guess Morgan 2000 Revocable Trust under instrument dated November 30, 2000 Recorded: 10/31/2023 as Instrument No. 2023-0021087 of Official Records in the office of the Recorder of SANTA CRUZ County, California; Date of Sale: 12/10/2026 at 01:45 PM Place of Sale: At the courtyard steps to the Santa Cruz County Courthouse, located at 701 Ocean Street, Santa Cruz, CA 95060 Amount of unpaid balance and other charges: $739,284.83 The purported property address is: 5440 GOLF DRIVE, SOQUEL, CA 95073 Assessor's Parcel No.: 037-092-06 All bidders, at the date, time, and place of the scheduled sale, will be required to show satisfactory support to the auctioneer of their ability to pay the amount they intend to bid, unless arrangements have been made with the trustee prior to the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website http://www.qualityloan.com, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-26-1057613-AB. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 866-645-7711, or visit this internet website http://www.qualityloan.com, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-26-1057613-AB to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE OWNER-OCCUPANT: Any prospective owner-occupant as defined in Section 2924m of the California Civil Code who is the last and highest bidder at the trustee's sale shall provide the required affidavit or declaration of eligibility to the auctioneer at the trustee's sale or shall have it delivered to QUALITY LOAN SERVICE CORPORATION by 5 p.m. on the next business day following the trustee's sale at the address set forth in the below signature block.
